May 30, 2019

Dear Friends,

Tucked deep into the northern Adirondack Mountains, on the shore of a crisp spring-fed lake, is an historic summer camp, owned and frequented by celebrities for decades. We hope you’ll plan to join us for live music, special cocktails and a surprise guest, on Saturday, August 3 for “Summer Soiree: An Afternoon at Werrenrath Camp.”

Thanks to the hospitality of our hosts, Bob and Lee Brewer, you’ll have rare access to a European-inspired summer camp, once owned by famed baritone Reinald Werrenrath. Werrenrath’s long musical career spanned the first third of the twentieth century, and his celebrity attracted such famous guests as Joan Crawford, Clark Gable and Eleanor Roosevelt.

We invite you to join our honorary committee at the Keystone, Cornerstone, or Capstone levels, each including a ticket to the event. Your participation on the honorary committee directly benefits historic preservation and community revitalization efforts in the Adirondack region and your participation will be prominently recognized in all invitations and programs for the day.

Since 1990, AARCH has been the leading voice for many of the cultural resources that make the Adirondacks such a unique place to live, play, and work. And, through AARCH’s popular summer tour series, hundreds of people annually are surprised by the breadth of architectural resources and stunning communities found within the “Blue Line.” By joining the honorary committee, you enable AARCH to undertake new projects and activities, to connect with more people, and to achieve essential preservation successes. Your support will help to make the Adirondack region an even better place to live, work and visit.

We look forward to seeing you in August, at this premier fundraising event for Adirondack Architectural Heritage. Thank you so much for your support.

Sincerely,

Steven Engelhart
Executive Director

PS: To be sure to have your name included in all invitations and promotional materials please return the enclosed form no later than Monday, June 17, 2019. The deadline for inclusion in the event program only is Thursday, August 1, 2019.
Yes! I would love to join the Honorary Committee and show my support for Adirondack communities and architecture.

Keystone — The central weight-bearing stone placed at the apex of an arch; without it, the arch would not stand.
$500 per person, includes one ticket, verbal recognition at the event, and a special introduction to Eleanor Roosevelt

Cornerstone — The first stone laid in a masonry foundation, often considered the most important stone in the building.
$250 per person, includes one ticket to the event and verbal recognition

Capstone — A finishing stone atop an exterior wall or roof to mitigate erosion
$150 per person, includes one ticket to the event

Name(s) as you would like to be recognized: _____________________________________________
Name(s) as you would like to be recognized: _____________________________________________
Address:_________________________________________________________________________
City:_________________________________________State:__________
Zip: _________________________ Phone:_________________________
Email: ______________________________________________________

I am enclosing a check payable to AARCH for $____________ Charge my credit card for $____________

Credit Card:                     Visa      Master Card     Discover     AMEX
Name on card: ______________________________________________
Number: ___________________________________________________
EXP: _______________  CVV: ____________
Signature: ___________________________________________________

Please Mail Form & Payment to: AARCH
1745 Main Street
Keeseville, NY 12944

You may also visit www.AARCH.org To Become a Sponsor Securely Online!
www.AARCH.org